Criminal Bench Division Update – Judge Maria Musti Cook

The PJ has approved some changes to the essential functions to be held/heard by the criminal court division. Please understand that to date these changes ONLY pertain to incarcerated individuals whose liberty may be at issue.

On Fridays, video arraignments from the prison have resumed.

Parole/probation violation hearings for incarcerated defendants that would result in a recommendation for TS sentence or further period of probation may again be scheduled by video. Counsel may e-file a short petition requesting a hearing or speak to the probation officer about doing so.

Guilty pleas for incarcerated defendants may be scheduled by video. Again this is for defendants who are being offered a time-served sentence and/or probation. This will require defense counsel to go to the prison and meet with his/her client through the glass. Warden Doll has made a temporary exception for the colloquy form and information to be passed through the sally port. Of course, this also requires counsel to go to the prison prepared with the documents and to bring them to the courtroom at the time of the hearing. Please review the documents before you leave the prison to make certain that the documents are correctly completed. This process also requires that there be a firm plea offer and acceptance. There will be no re-negotiations from the courtroom. If there is a victim or family who wish to oppose the offered sentence or wish to make a statement, then this matter will be scheduled into the future.

Obviously, this does not result in any requirement that the court must accept a plea that it believes to be inappropriate, but it does give the defendant an opportunity to be heard.

If you wish to schedule a plea contact the JAA for the judge assigned. If it cannot be scheduled with that judge, the JAA will seek another judge for scheduling. Counsel will not be picking the judge. Obviously, the DA's office, PD's office, Probation and conflict office have personnel available. The only people that would need to come in from the outside is privately retained defense counsel.

ICC hearings for incarcerated defendants will resume on April 17, 2020. At this time the criminal bench will continue to hear these matters. If you represent an ICC defendant, Counsel must advise the court at least 7 days in advance as to whether the matter is contested or uncontested. Contested hearings may be delayed until we devise an appropriate method of taking testimony from the affiant, other witnesses and alleged victims remotely.

For any of these matters, if your client needs the assistance of a court interpreter, Counsel must make those arrangements at least 72 hours in advance and advise the court of the need.

543d warrants – For those individuals who fail to appear at preliminary hearings, they will no longer have a second chance to appear before a 543d warrant is issued. When the request comes from the MDJ, a 543d warrant will issue for failure to appear. This change is not related to COVID19, but an effort to streamline the arraignment process.

Obviously, this continues to be a fluid situation and as the restrictions on movement continue, we will continue to do our best to address those matters with the highest priorities.

Pennsylvania Allows Remote Notarization of Some Documents During Coronavirus Emergency

The Department of State requested and received a temporary limited suspension of the Pennsylvania statute which requires physical presence of notaries for all notarial acts relating to a statement or signature on a record.

Because of the potentially fatal nature of COVID-19, particularly for older persons, trust and estate attorneys have been inundated by requests to provide clients with legal instruments relating to end-of-life planning. Many people are frightened by the prospect of not being able to rely on others to handle their affairs if they become incapacitated.

Yet, it is increasingly difficult for attorneys to meet with their clients. Many seniors, and particularly those with medical conditions, are obeying the president and the governor and are limiting exposure to other people. Some clients are in nursing homes where no visitors are allowed.

Several types of documents used in estate planning require notarization. Some do not require notarization under law, but the best practices of attorneys utilize notarization for these documents.

- Documents that require notarization
 - Powers of attorney (20 Pa.C.S. § 5601)
 - Self-executing wills (20 Pa.C.S. § 3132.1)
 - Temporary guardianship (23 Pa.C.S. § 5621)
- Documents that do not require notarization, but notarization is best practice.
 - Advance health care directives/health care powers of attorney (20 Pa.C.S. § 5452)
 - Living wills (20 Pa.C.S. § 5442)
 - Standby and temporary guardianship (23 Pa.C.S. § 5611)
- For all the above documents, notaries may use audio-visual communication technology as an alternative to personal appearance. However, notaries must execute the notarial acts in accordance with all other requirements of the Revised Uniform Law on Notarial Acts (RULONA). The safeguards included in the Uniform Law Commission amendments to RULONA and the recent Remote Online Notarization legislation introduced in Pennsylvania will be required. These safeguards include multilayered identity verification, use of tamper-evident technology and an audio-video recording of the notarial act.

- Therefore, all notaries who are using audio-visual communication technology as an alternative to personal appearance must:
 - become an approved Pennsylvania electronic notary (free application)
 - use an e-notary solution already approved by the Department that offers remote notarization technology. These include: Doc-Verify, Safe-Docs and Pavaso
 - indicate in the notary certificate that the notarial act was performed by means of communication technology. The following statement will satisfy that requirement: “This notarial act involved the use of communication technology.”

Advance Care Directive Update

UPDATE to our reminder for those providing estate planning services - please note there is an ongoing partnership with WellSpan to enable attorneys to share the advance care directives for uploading into patient records.

Now is the time for all practitioners to include this important service as an option when meeting with clients. Attached is the UPDATED fax cover sheet WITH THE PHONE NUMBER and instructions.

About the legal medical partnership: In the spring of 2019, Mac Brillhart, Past President of the York County Bar Association, and Dr. Vipul Bhatia, Medical Director of Continuing Care Services and Clinical Lead for WellSpan's Horizon Planning® (advance care planning) program, began discussions to explore an innovative idea to transmit an individual's advance directive from his or her attorney's office directly to their Electronic Health Record. Dr. Bhatia first met York County Bar Association members Steve Hovis and Mac Brillhart of Stock and Leader, and David Mills of Blakey, Yost, Bupp and Rausch, Chair of the YCBA's Estate Planning Section, to discuss feasibility. Tim Bupp of CGA and Alex Snyder of Barley Snyder attended a subsequent meeting to discuss ways to encourage more attorneys to offer this service

Enthusiasm for the idea grew when it was determined a simple process could be implemented for an attorney to obtain a client waiver and consent to send his or her advance directive to WellSpan Health. The attorney must ensure there are two individual identifiers on the documents for correlation with patient information before sending the document via a secure fax line to WellSpan Health Medical Records/Health Information Management Department. The documents are immediately then scanned into a patient's chart, giving timely access in the event of a serious health crisis for the client.

According to Brillhart, "To date, numerous law firms have committed to participate. We are now beginning to reach out to other health care systems in our County to expand this effort as we see tremendous value in offering this additional service to our clients." Dr. Bhatia noted, "To our knowledge, this is the only such partnership of its kind in the U.S."

04-02-2020 Sent on Behalf of Judge Marceca Strong:

Kindly be advised that, effective Monday, April 6, 2020, the Prothonotary of York will be accepting conciliation fees and York County Court Administration will be scheduling new conciliations. All filings must be made by mail. You will need to utilize the TEMP Conciliation Scheduling Order when requesting a new conciliation since we are utilizing phone and video conferencing capabilities for all conferences during the judicial emergency. A cover sheet must be included which indicates the following:

1. An accurate email address and contact information for all counsel and unrepresented parties involved in the case
2. Has CYF ever been involved?
3. Are you serving a Spanish speaking party?
4. Does any party need an interpreter? If yes, what language?
5. Do you know if the other party is represented by an attorney?

During the judicial emergency, access to the building will continue to be limited to only those matters specifically approved by the President Judge and outlined in the declaration. Other matters may be scheduled by the bench and court offices that are not emergencies and can be handled by video or telephone conferencing. For example, as the Prothonotary is accepting divorce filings by mail as well, the Divorce Master's Office will be processing and appointing masters in new cases as they receive them. Conferences will be held by virtual technology whenever possible. Any calls to the Divorce Master's Office should be made to the main line (717)771-9333.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter

If you require an accommodation under the ADA, it is recommended that you make your request as soon as possible, but at least three (3) business days before your scheduled participation in any court proceeding or 19th Judicial District program or activity. All requests for accommodation will be given due consideration and if necessary, may require an interactive process between the requestor and the AOYCC to determine the best course of action. Failure to provide advance notice may result in a delay in the proceeding.

To request a reasonable accommodation, you will need to request the Request for Reasonable Accommodation Form (ADA Form A) from and return it to:

LA POLÍTICA SOBRE LA LEY PARA LOS AMERICANOS CON DISCAPACIDADES (TÍTULO II)

El Distrito Judicial 19^{no} de Pensilvania, a través de la Oficina Administrativa de Tribunales del Condado de York (AOYCC, por sus siglas en inglés), cumple con el Título II de la Ley Para Americanos con Discapacidades (ADA, por sus siglas en inglés) la cual ley pide que “ningún individuo calificado y con una discapacidad deberá, por razón de tal discapacidad, ser excluido de participar en, o denegársele beneficios de los servicios, programas, o actividades de una entidad pública, o ser sometido a discriminación por cualquiera de tales entidades”. 42 U.S.C.A. §12132. En conformidad a ese requisito, si usted es un individuo con una discapacidad que necesita acomodaciones para poder participar en cualquier diligencia judicial o cualquier otro servicio, programa, o actividad del Distrito Judicial 19^{no}, usted tiene derecho, sin costo alguno, a que se le provea cierta asistencia. La ADA no exige que el AOYCC tome alguna acción que fundamentalmente altere la naturaleza de sus programas o servicios, o imponga una carga financiera o administrativa excesiva.

Si usted exige tales acomodaciones bajo la ADA, se recomienda que haga su petición tan pronto como sea posible, pero por lo menos tres (3) días laborales antes de su participación programada para cualquier diligencia judicial o en cualquier programa o actividad del Distrito Judicial 19^{no}. A todas las peticiones para acomodaciones se le dará la consideración debida, y de ser necesario, puede que exija un proceso interactivo entre el solicitante y la AOYCC para determinar el mejor curso a seguir. Si usted no provee una notificación por adelantado, puede resultar en que la diligencia se retrase.

Para solicitar acomodaciones razonables, necesitará solicitarle y devolverle el formulario Solicitud para Acomodación Razonable (Formulario A del ADA) al:

Coordinador del ADA
Oficina Administrativa del Tribunal del Condado de York
Centro Judicial del Condado de York
45 N. George Street, York, PA 17401
Teléfono 717-771-9234, Fax 717-771-9911
Correo electrónico: AOYCC@YorkCountyPa.gov.

Si necesita ayuda completando este formulario, comuníquese con el Coordinador de ADA. Cualquier reclamo alegando infracciones del Título II bajo el ADA, puede ser presentado al Coordinador de ADA a la dirección antes mencionada, en conformidad con el Procedimiento para Reclamos de la ADA AOYCC. Se le enviará una respuesta después de un análisis cuidadoso de los hechos.

Si necesita un intérprete en su idioma, favor de llamar al Coordinador de Acceso Lingüístico al 717-771-9234.

YORK COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

& its charitable arm, the YORK COUNTY BAR FOUNDATION

March 31, 2020

The COVID-19 pandemic has affected all of us in ways unimagined only a month ago. Things we were doing then were commonplace, every-day, and normal activities, from simply shaking hands with an acquaintance to enjoying a night at out a local establishment with family and friends. Today, what was normal then seems like a dream, and its presence is sorely missed.

The legal profession and our system of justice, like most work activities, has been significantly reduced in scope. What can be delayed and or shifted to conference calls or video conferencing has been. But the legal system is still open for critical tasks such as protection from abuse, indirect criminal contempt hearings, bench warrants, certain juvenile matters, emergency guardianships, involuntary commitments and injunctions. Judges, attorneys and their staffs, law enforcement and first responders remain on duty for the things that must be done to protect our residents.

There's no doubt that many of the things people ask lawyers to do on any given day do not need to be done right that second – frankly, we only ask our attorneys to do things when we get around to it.

But...what about the things that really do need to be done quickly, or even “now?”

- If a loved one dies, what are the next legal steps, to whom would you turn?
- If you found out your daughter was being assaulted by her boyfriend, where would you send her for help?
- If you are the Guardian for an elderly relative, and they suddenly took ill, would you know what your legal responsibilities are?

The need for thorough and timely communications during this crisis is critical. The York County Bar Association and Foundation continues its support of the profession and the community through remote work. We also remain in touch with our legal aid partners, ensuring that civil legal services can continue for everyone, and not simply for those who can afford it.

Contact your attorney if you are in need of legal assistance or the York County Bar Association (717-854-8755x201; email info@yorkbar.com).
