Mercersburg, PA 17236
Phone: 717-498-0065

E-mail: classic_catering@comcast.net

Try our new food service business. It is built on the concept of fresh homemade foods, not processed food made in bulk.

We prepare fresh food for pick-up, deliver and drop-off, or we will cater for you. When we cater your event or venue, the food will be hot held to serve as hot as possible.

When catered, we need 72 hours' notice for small groups, 5 days for larger parties. You will receive one (1) server for one hour free. Extra time or servers will be charged at $10 per hour. Equipment (tables, linens) will be an extra charge.

The menu can vary on your choices. The cost will depend on food cost, the number of guests, number of servers and equipment need or requested.

Small orders of menu items will be available for pick-up, and larger orders can be delivered (must be ordered the day before requested).

A large smoker grill is available for special events. The price will be discussed at time of order. The smoker can hold up to 300 pounds of meat at one time.

We will do smoked or grilled food on/offsite cooking. If you are planning a huge gathering, this option is for you. The smell will drive your neighbors crazy.

The pulled pork or pit beef will fall off the bone. With the other part of the grill, we have the option to grill large numbers of hamburgers and hot dogs at one time, or steaks.

We are Pennsylvania registered, entity number 3986237. Wholesale food — food processor registration number W2169786. Food facility — permanent E&D registration number R4916473. Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture inspected. We are also "Serv-Safe" certified.

We will accept major credit cards.

Hope to see you soon.

Owners Jay and Nina Dutrow

New law changes Maryland district court procedures for payable traffic tickets

Under a new state law that took effect Jan. 1, drivers who get a payable traffic ticket in Maryland no longer will be given an automatic trial date to appear in court. Instead, any driver wanting to go to trial to dispute a ticket will have to request a trial date from the District Court of Maryland.

According to the Maryland Judiciary Office of Communications and Public Affairs, drivers who get a payable traffic ticket now will have three options:

- 1) Pay the full amount of the fine;
- 2) Ask the District Court for a waiver hearing for sentencing instead of a trial; or
- 3) Ask for a trial date at the District Court.

Payable traffic violations include speeding, failure to obey traffic signs or signals, or failure to stop for a school bus. The new law includes all payable traffic violations for which no incarceration/jail time is required.

Drivers who get a payable traffic ticket must comply with the new law within 30 days by paying the fine, asking for a waiver hearing or asking for a trial. If drivers do not choose one of these options within 30 days, they risk having their license suspended by the Motor Vehicle Administration.

Waiver hearings are for drivers who don't dispute the traffic ticket and want to plead guilty, but want to have a judge hear an explanation before being sentenced. A waiver hearing is held before a judge in District Court, but it is not a trial, and the law enforcement officer and witnesses will not be summoned to appear. At the hearing, the judge will hear from the ticketed driver only for the purpose of imposing a sentence.

Drivers who want to dispute their traffic ticket must ask for a trial date. Drivers must come to court for the trial, and all witnesses are summoned to appear to testify. The officer who wrote the traffic ticket also attends the trial.

Traffic tickets issued after Jan. 1 will have instructions about how to pay the fine, ask for a waiver hearing or ask for a trial date. Drivers can ask for a waiver hearing or a trial date by marking that option on the ticket and mailing it to the District Court location in the city or county where the traffic violation occurred.

If drivers opt to pay the traffic ticket fine, they may do so by mail, online by credit card at www.mdcourts.gov, by phone with a credit card at 1-800-492-2656, or in person at any District Court of Maryland location.
