Richard Mark Toma vs
Christine A. Levitt, Defendant
Civil Docket No: 1158-2016
in Divorce

The Plaintiff has filed a complaint in divorce based upon unhappy and irreconcilable differences with the parties having been separated in excess of two years.

You have been sued in court. If you wish to defend against the claims set forth in the following pages, you must take prompt action. You are warned that if you fail to do so, the case may proceed without you and a decree of divorce or annulment may be entered against you by the court. A judgment may also be entered against you for any other claim or relief requested in these papers by the Defendant. You may lose money or property or other rights important to you, including custody or visitation of your children.

If the ground for the divorce is indignities or irretrievable breakdown of the marriage, you may request marriage counseling. A list of marriage counselors is available in the Office of the Prothonotary at: The Pike County Courthouse, 412 Broad Street, Milford, Pennsylvania 18337.

If you do not file a claim for alimony, division of property, lawyer's fees or expenses before a divorce or annulment is granted, you may lose the right to claim any of them.

You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, go to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help: Pike County Commissioners' Office, Pike County Administration Building 506 Broad Street, Milford, PA 18337. Telephone number 570.296.7613.

Submitted by: Kelly A. Gaughan, Attorney ID#82700, P.O. Box D, Milford, PA 18337 (570.296.8844).
