South 75° 30' East 105 feet to a point marked with an iron bar for a corner, the end of Course No. 2; thence South 14° 30' West 35 feet to a point marked by an iron bar, the end of the third course; thence South 75° 30' East 170.70 feet to a point marked by a bar for a corner, the end of Course No. 4; thence South 4° West 116 feet to a point in the center of Roosevelt Highway, 75.33 feet Westerly from a joint in the said concrete and diagonally 23.5 feet Southeasterly from the North end of a culvert across said highway, being the end of the fifth course; thence along the center of said highway North 75° 30' West 296.67 feet to the place of beginning.

Subject to the rights and privileges with respect to certain restrictions, covenants and easements created in a Deed conveyed by Fed L. Clagett and Pearl M. Clagett, his wife, to Milton H. Vanness and Emma C. Vanness, his wife, dated May 17, 1928 and recorded October 1, 1928 in Bradford County Deed Book 369, page 401.

1. The center point of the said well in question, located upon lands of Fred L. and Pearl M. Clagett, his wife, is determined by beginning at the Northwest corner of the lands above at the end of the first course and extend this first course North 14° 30' East 55 feet from and upon other lands of the Grantors; from thence going South 30° East 112.5 feet to the center of the said well, which point can also be determined by beginning at the Southwest corner of the lands above described at the point of beginning on the Roosevelt Highway and going South 75° 30' East 112.5 feet; thence North 14° 30' East 204 feet to the center of the said well.

2. The said well has recently been dug and stoned up a depth of approximately 30 feet and about 3 feet in diameter on the inside in the clear.

3. The water from this well is to be and is piped from said well in a Southwesterly course crossing the second or 105 feet course above, being the line bounding the Northwesterly portion of the lands above about 55 feet South 75° 30' East from the Northwest corner of the above described lands and approximately as now located upon the ground, first, over other lands of the Grantors to and upon the lands of the Grantees as described hereinabove, being to and into the dwelling house thereon and then continuing in the changed course Westerly to a building lot of the Grantors adjoining and just West-erly from the lands conveyed hereby to the Grantees and on which premises the unused water surplus passing the said pipes may be obtained controlled and disposed of by the Grantors.

4. It is understood that dwellings may be erected and occupied on both of the said building lots of the parties hereto, namely: upon the Western end of the lands above described and upon the adjoining building lot or lands of the Grantors immediately West of the lands above described, that may obtain water from the said well, and it is understood that the water may and shall be obtained and taken by a pipe located at and in said well and running thence Southwesterly in the ground a sufficient depth to avoid frost, which pipe shall be one inch in diameter to and upon the Grantees' lands for its use by the Grantees and including any outlets on the Grantees' premises at and from its change of course Westerly, containing and extending in that direction upon other lands or building lots of the first parties, the size of the pipe shall be reduced to 3/4 of an inch in diameter.

5. It is understood that the well in question complete, including the top, cover or wellhouse that may be constructed for its protection and the placing, maintenances, replacement and repairs at all times of the water pipe continuing first, over lands of the Grantors to, in and upon the premises and dwelling of the Grantees and from the Grantees to, in and upon the premises and dwelling of the Grantors, located on the lands adjoining the lands above described on the West, to the cellar of each party, as now existing or as the same may be located and made on the respective properties at the suggested locations, namely: the Grantees on the Northern half of the lands above described and the Grantors not more than 100 feet from the Westerly line of the lands of the Grantees, in common and equally, share and pay alike, the placing and maintenance to be done promptly in a workmanlike and first class manner with the materials suited and corresponding and workmanship of the best for the purpose. Each party to take care of any pipe or openings from the main to and from the same to any part of their respective dwelling. The Grantees hereof to have the use of the water only for the one dwellings and occupants of the same for general family, home and household purposes.

6. It is anticipated and contemplated that the water supply will be sufficient to provide for the dwelling, family and home of the two respective parties hereto and should the flow be not automatic and spontaneous and force be necessary to pump or draw the same through the water pipes the parties hereto shall each, as near as may be, do one-half and pay one-half of the expense of pumping or forcing the water with sufficient power and force to provide for reasonable and ordinary use in the respective dwelling and for use, if desired, by either party in the second stories in the ordinary way in their respective dwellings.

7. The use of the water from the said well and all rights, duties and obligations of the respective parties hereto shall be equal, in common and acting and operation in common for the mutual convenience and needs of the respective parties for the said single dwelling house and incidental use each on their respective building or residence properties or premises, with the understanding that each shall be entitled to have and use an equal amount of water, each being economical and saving of the same so as not exhaust the supply and when short or low, each party shall be equally entitled to an equal amount of the same as near as may be, and when the supply is sufficient and a surplus the Grantors hereof shall make some proper distribution of the same upon and over their premises.

8. Should either party neglect to do an perform his part of the work and expense in the maintenance of the said well, piping and water works promptly and with speed and expedient when required, either one may do the work and furnish the materials and the proportionate share of the expenses of the delinquent party shall be by him repaid to the party making the expenditure and doing the work.

9. That neither party can be arbitrary or oppressive hereunder, as a part of the consideration hereof it is agreed that any disputes that may arise shall be submitted to arbitration as follows:

Either party aggrieved or desiring, may specify in writing the subject of dispute and name an arbitrator on his side, the other party shall within one day name an arbitrator on that side and two named shall choose an umpire. All the arbitrators shall be residents of Bradford County. If the party applied to shall neglect or refuse to choose within the time mentioned the party applying may go to one of the two nearest Justices to the premises or operations, who shall name an arbitrator for the defaulting party, and in case the two arbitrators chosen shall fail to agree on an umpire within two days, the one applying for the arbitration may call upon one of the two nearest Justices to the nearest premises or operations to name the umpire and the three so chosen, or any two of them, with not less than two days' notice to all and to the parties interested, shall meet upon the premises and hear the matter in dispute and make full investigation, and their award in writing or any two of them concerning the subject in controversy, as well as who shall pay the costs of the arbitration, which shall not include any witnesses, shall be final and conclusive upon the parties, without any right or appeal or proceedings at law under any circumstances, but it is agreed that if the award shall be a money award, that then the same may be entered as a judgment in any court of record waiving all irregularities and informalities and proceeded on accordingly by execution, etc., with all of the waivers of inquisition, exemption, stay, error, and appeal laws, and this arbitration may be renewed from time to time whenever the parties shall disagree, the purpose of being to avoid any litigation under any circumstances.
