LLA Supports Canine Companions to Honor Attorney Public Service

Every year the Lycoming Law Association recognizes its members for their pro bono service to the community. Rather than provide individual gifts to the recognized attorneys, the LLA extends a $500 donation to a worthy charitable organization. This year the grant was extended to Canine Companions, the organization that trained Ludo, Lycoming County’s Courthouse Dog.

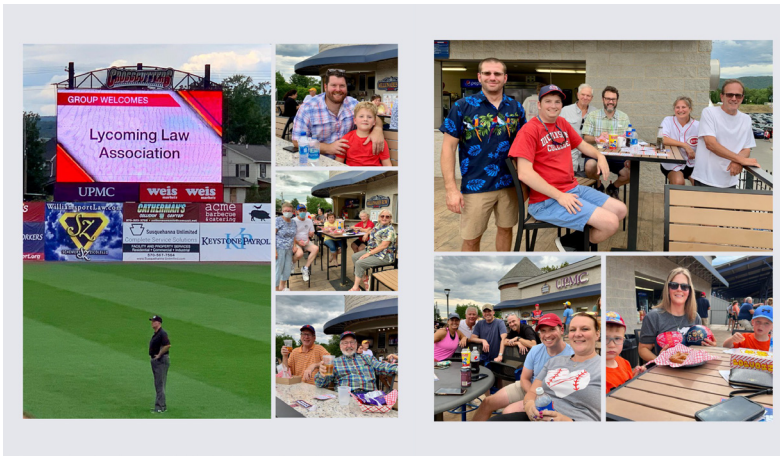

The check was presented on August 5, 2022 by Pro Bono Committee Chair, John Pietrovito, LLA President, Corey Mowrey and LLA Executive Director, Michele Frey to Ludo and his handler, Jerri Rook.
