NOTICE OF 2014 PUBLIC DELINQUENT TAX SALE

To the owners of properties described in this notice, and to all persons or taxing authorities having such liens, tax judgments or municipal claims against such properties.

In accordance with the provisions of the Act of 1947, P.L. 1368 and its amendments, known as the Real Estate Tax Sale Law, the following described properties will be offered by the Tax Claim Bureau of Monroe County, Pennsylvania at Public Sale for delinquent taxes at the Monroe County Administrative Offices, Stroudsburg, Monroe County, Pennsylvania on Wednesday, September 10, 2014 at 9:00 a.m. and continuing thereafter with adjournments and re-adjournments to such other days and times as may be announced at the sale or subsequently advertised.

The purpose of said sale is to dispose of such properties against which delinquent taxes remain unpaid, the claims having become absolute, and legal period of discharge of claim expiring on January 1, 2013. The Terms of said sale shall be as follows: No sale of any property shall be made unless a bid equal to the final upset price is made. The approximate upset price is hereinafter set out after the description of each property and includes all taxes, penalties, returning fees, interest and costs as recorded in the Tax Claim Bureau and the approximate cost of this sale pro-rated. The final upset price will be announced at the time of sale.

The purchaser of any property shall, as soon as the property is struck down, pay the entire purchase money to the Bureau. In case said amount is not paid, the sale shall be void and the property again put up for sale.

Any taxing districts having municipal claims against any property herein advertised shall certify the amount thereof to the Tax Claim Bureau before sale in order to include the same in the final upset price. The sale of any property herein advertised may, at the option of the Tax Claim Bureau, be stayed if the owner thereof, or any lien creditor of the owner, on or before the date of sale, enters into an approved agreement with the Tax Claim Bureau to pay the taxes in installments, in the manner provided by the Act of Assembly, and the agreement entered into.

The Real Estate Tax Sale Law provides: There shall be no period of redemption after such sale. Every such sale shall convey title to the property under and subject to the lien of every recorded obligation, claim, lien, estate, mortgage, ground rent and Commonwealth tax lien not included in the upset price with which said property may have or shall become charged or for which it may become liable.

It is strongly urged the prospective purchaser have examinations made of the title to any tracts in which they may be interested. Every reasonable effort has been made to keep these proceedings free from error. However, in every case, the property is offered for sale by the Tax Claim Bureau without any guarantee or warranty whatever, either as to existence, correctness of ownership, size, boundaries, locations, structures or lack of structures upon the land, liens, title or any other matter or thing whatever. No adjustments will be made after the property is struck down.

The properties offered for sale are hereinafter set out by township of taxing districts and the name first appearing in item is that of the last known owner or reputed owner.

Cindy Lee Treible, Acting Director
Monroe County Tax Claim Bureau
