JUDICIAL LAW CLERK

Judicial Law Clerk positions are available at the Northampton County Courthouse, 669 Washington Street, Easton, PA for the term August 2022 to August 2023. Northampton County offers a superior clerkship experience at the common pleas level. Our clerks spend a great deal of time in the courtroom observing proceedings in addition to participating with their assigned judges in the resolution of pretrial and post-trial motions, researching evidentiary issues that arise during the course of court proceedings, preparing jury charges, and in conducting legal research and drafting opinions. We restrict consideration of applicants to those who are in the upper third of their class after their first two years of law school. They must also have a B average or higher in legal research and writing. Interested candidates please send resume, transcript and writing sample to The Honorable Paula A. Roscioli at the above address no later than September 30, 2021.
