LOGOS ACADEMY v. THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF YORK v. ASSESSMENT AND TAX CLAIM OFFICE OF YORK COUNTY

No. 2014-SU-001435-44

Preliminary Objections – Real Estate Tax – Tax Exemption

1. Before the Court were Defendant School District of the City of York's Preliminary Objections to Plaintiff's Complaint. Plaintiff Logos Academy asserts that, having been granted a charitable tax exemption, it had no obligation to pay real estate taxes for the calendar year 2013 at the rate determined by reassessment in March of that year.

2. Because Plaintiff's claims are based on subject matter within the jurisdiction of the tax assessment office and Plaintiff failed to appeal either determination in dispute according to the statutory appeal process, this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims. Further, because there is no uncertainty or insecurity with regard to the legal relations of the parties and no significant constitutional question, this Court cannot exercise jurisdiction under the Declaratory Judgment Act. Finally, because no exception to governmental immunity for tortious acts of employees applies, Moving Defendant has governmental immunity with regard to Plaintiff's claim for equitable estoppel.

3. For the reasons set forth above, Moving Defendant's Preliminary Objections were GRANTED, and Plaintiff's Complaint thereby DISMISSED.

MEMORANDUM OPINION GRANTING DEFENDANT
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF YORK'S
PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS

Before the Court are Defendant School District of the City of York's Preliminary Objections to Plaintiff's Complaint. Plaintiff Logos Academy asserts that, having been granted a charitable tax exemption, it has no obligation to pay real estate taxes for the calendar year 2013 at the rate determined by reassessment in March of that year. For the following reasons, Moving Defendant's Preliminary Objections are GRANTED.

FACTS AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Plaintiff operates a school for children from low income households mostly in the York City School District. In 2006, Plaintiff purchased a parcel of real estate located at 250 West King Street in the City of York, with the intent of building a school on the property. Construction of the school building began in the spring of 2009, and the school opened in the fall of 2010. Plaintiff paid all real estate taxes due for the fiscal years 2007-2012, despite operating as a 501(c)(3) entity and satisfying criteria for tax exemption since 2009.

In November 2012, Plaintiff filed the necessary documents with the Board of Assessment Appeals of York County to apply for a tax exemption. As a result, the Tax Assessment Bureau reassessed the property in March 2013, and increased the tax liability from approximately $13,000 to an amount in excess of $128,000 based on improvements to the parcel of land. Following a hearing by the Board of Assessment Appeals of York County, Plaintiff was granted tax-exempt status on May 7, 2013, effective January 1, 2014.

On September 4, 2013, Plaintiff sent a letter to Moving Defendant requesting tax exoneration for calendar year 2013. Compl. Ex. B. In a letter dated October 17, 2013, the Executive Assistant to the Business Manager of Moving Defendant communicated that the exoneration was granted by the York City School Board. Compl. Ex. C. On November 14, 2013, Moving Defendant's Business Manager sent to Plaintiff a follow-up letter correcting the October 17 correspondence, stating: "That letter was sent in error. The District's Board of Directors did in fact vote, on October 16, 2013, to deny the request for exoneration." Compl. Ex. D.

Plaintiff filed a Complaint for Declaratory Judgment on April 22, 2014, alleging that the Board of Assessment Appeals decision to make the exemption effective in 2014 was erroneous and that the effective date should be January 1, 2013. In the alternative, Plaintiff argues that the reassessment in March 2013 was an illegal spot assessment and the property should be taxed at its previous rate. Defendant Assessment and Tax Claim Office of York County filed an Answer on May 22, 2014. Moving Defendant filed Preliminary Objections on May 30, 2014, and a Brief in Support thereof on June 6, 2014. Plaintiff filed a Brief in Opposition to Defendant's Preliminary Objections on August 4, 2014. Moving Defendant then filed a Reply Brief in Support of its Preliminary Objections on August 25, 2014. This case was listed for one-judge disposition on September 5, 2014, and assigned to this Honorable Court on September 25, 2014. Oral argument was held on October 21, 2014.

DISCUSSION

Preliminary objections which, if sustained, would result in the dismissal of a cause of action, "should be sustained only in cases that are clear and free from doubt." Bower v. Bower, 531 Pa. 54, 611 A.2d 181, 182 (1992). Further, preliminary objections should be granted "only where it appears with certainty that, upon the facts averred, the law will not allow the plaintiff to recover." Snare v. Ebensburg Power Co., 431 Pa. Super. 515, 637 A.2d 296 (1993) (citation omitted), appeal denied 538 Pa. 627, 646 A.2d 1181 (1994). In ruling on preliminary objections, "the court must consider the evidence in the light most favorable to the non-moving party." Maleski by Taylor v. DP Realty Trust, 653 A.2d 54, 61 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 1994).

Preliminary Objections of Defendant

1. Pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. § 1028(a)(1): The Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction where Plaintiff seeks to obtain retroactive tax exempt status and Plaintiff failed to timely file for such status or to follow the statutory appeal process.

Proceedings based on tax assessment matters rest with the tax assessment office, then the board of tax assessment appeals, then the Court of Common Pleas. 53 Pa.C.S.A. § 8854. Courts have consistently held that equity has no power to retroactively grant tax exemptions where the institution failed to file timely exemption applications or to follow the statutory appeals process. In re Petition of Mausoleum Construction Co., 423 A.2d 809 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 1980), City of Pittsburgh v. Board of Property Assessment Appeals and Review of the County of Allegheny, 412 A.2d 655 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 1980).

Under the Consolidated County Assessment Law, the deadline to file an assessment appeal or exemption request to be applied to the next calendar year is September 1. 53 Pa.C.S.A. § 8844(c). Plaintiff filed for the exemption in November 2012. Thus, the effective date was correctly determined to be January 1, 2014, pursuant to the Consolidated County Assessment Law. Because Plaintiff failed to appeal the determination within 30 days, this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction.

Plaintiff also alleges that the reassessment in March 2013 was an illegal spot assessment. However, once again, Plaintiff failed to appeal the reassessment within 30 days. Therefore, for the same reason, this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction to determine whether the assessment was in fact an illegal spot assessment.

2. Pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. § 1028(a)(1): The Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction under the Declaratory

Judgment Act because there is no uncertainty or insecurity with regard to the rights, status, and other legal relations of the parties.

For the Court to entertain jurisdiction under the Declaratory Judgment Act, there must be uncertainty or insecurity regarding the rights, status, and other legal relations of the parties. 42 Pa.C.S.A. 75 § 7541(a). The relevant legal relations of the parties were determined by the administrative bodies associated with tax assessments, and those determinations became final due to Plaintiff's failure to file any appeals of these decisions according to the statutory appeals process. Therefore, there is no uncertainty or insecurity with regard to the legal relations between the parties, and this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction under the Declaratory Judgment Act.

3.Pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. § 1028(a)(1): The Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction under the Declaratory Judgment Act to grant relief where the proceeding is within the jurisdiction of another tribunal.

Relief is not available under the Declaratory Judgment Act where the proceeding is within the exclusive jurisdiction of a tribunal other than the Court or the proceeding involves an appeal from an order of another tribunal. 42 Pa.C.S.A. § 7541(c). Because Plaintiff has not exhausted the statutory appeals process with the board of tax assessment appeals, the proceeding is within the jurisdiction of the board of tax assessment appeals and this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction.

4.Pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. § 1028(a)(1): The Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction because Plaintiff has not averred a substantial question of constitutionality.

For the Court to entertain jurisdiction over a constitutional question under the Declaratory Judgment Act, the plaintiff must assert a substantial question of constitutionality and not a mere allegation. See Kowenhoven v. County of Allegheny, 901 A.2d 1003 (2006), Borough of Green Tree v. Board of Prop. Assessments Appeals and Reviews of Allegheny County, 328 A.2d 819 (1974).

Plaintiff cites Section 2(a) of Article VIII of the Pennsylvania Constitution which states, in relevant part: "The General Assembly may by law exempt from taxation: [] (v) Institutions of Purely Public Charity." Compl. ¶ 35. Plaintiff correctly states that the Pennsylvania Constitution does not contain provisions for a delay between the time of the exemption application and the effective date of the exemption. Compl. ¶ 36. Plaintiff thus concludes that this means there can be no delay. Compl. ¶ 37. The Court disagrees.

The Pennsylvania Constitution clearly confers upon the legislature the power to exempt property from taxation, and the General Assembly has provided for the exemption of property pursuant to certain provisions of the Consolidated County Assessment Law. The statute contains clear provisions relating to procedure and deadlines, including a deadline of September 1 for requests for real estate tax exemption. 53 Pa.C.S.A. § 8844(c). Plaintiff filed its application for tax exemption in November 2012 and, after a hearing in April 2013, the board of tax assessment appeals granted the application effective the following year, on January 1, 2014, in accordance with the Consolidated County Assessment Law and the Pennsylvania Constitution. Therefore, there is no substantial question of constitutionality, and this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction.

5.Pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. § 1028(a)(4): Plaintiff's claim that tax exempt status must be decided on a calendar year basis lacks legal sufficiency.

Plaintiff's claim that tax exempt status must be decided on a calendar year basis relies on Appeal of Title Services, Inc., 252 A.2d 585 (Pa. 1969), which is inapposite and otherwise not controlling due to the subsequent enactment of the Consolidated County Assessment Law.

6.Pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. § 1028(a)(4): Plaintiff's claim for equitable estoppel based on the October 17, 2013, letter lacks legal sufficiency.

A cause of action for equitable estoppel lies where a party negligently misrepresents material facts while knowing, or having reason to know, that another will justifiably rely on the misrepresentation to its detriment and the other party does so rely. See Mary Ann Benn v. James Hospital, 2006 WL 3858207 (2006).

Moving Defendant recognizes that the October 17 letter was a negligent misrepresentation. Plaintiff alleges that it "believed and relied" on the October 17 letter to its detriment. Compl. ¶¶ 30, 34. Moving Defendant argues that Plaintiff failed to allege: (1) that Moving Defendant had or should have had knowledge that Plaintiff would rely on the letter to its detriment, (2) that Plaintiff justifiably relied in any way on the misrepresentation, and that (3) such reliance was detrimental to Plaintiff. Upon the facts averred, Plaintiff has not sufficiently pleaded a cause of action for equitable estoppel.

7.Pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. § 1028(a)(4): Moving Defendant has governmental immunity with respect to the Plaintiff's claim relating to the tax exoneration request and equitable estoppel.

Pursuant to the Tort Claims Act, local government agencies are afforded immunity for the acts of employees, subject to limited exceptions. See 42 Pa.C.S.A. §§ 8541, 8542. Governmental immunity may be raised by preliminary objection when it is apparent from the face of the complaint that immunity, but no exception, applies. See Orange Stones v. City of Reading and Fred Lachat, 87 A.3d 1014 (March 21, 2014).

Moving Defendant is a public school district and therefore a local government agency. It cannot be held liable for under a theory of equitable estoppel unless one of the exceptions outlined in the Tort Claims Act applies. Because erroneous content of correspondence negligently sent by an employee does not fall within any exception, Moving Defendant is immune and Plaintiff's claim for equitable estoppel is legally insufficient.

CONCLUSION

Because Plaintiff's claims are based on subject matter within the jurisdiction of the tax assessment office and Plaintiff failed to appeal either determination in dispute according to the statutory appeal process, this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims. Further, because there is no uncertainty or insecurity with regard to the legal relations of the parties and no significant constitutional question, this Court cannot exercise jurisdiction under the Declaratory Judgment Act. Finally, because no exception to governmental immunity for tortious acts of employees applies, Moving Defendant has governmental immunity with regard to Plaintiff's claim for equitable estoppel.

For the reasons set forth above, Moving Defendant's Preliminary Objections are GRANTED, and Plaintiff's Complaint is hereby DISMISSED.
