York County Bar Foundation
2012 CLARENCE “CHUCK” N. PATTERSON
DIVERSITY INTERNSHIP SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The York County Bar Association and Foundation believe that, although it is important to promote more minorities to senior level positions within the legal profession, those efforts will be hampered if there are still too few minorities who decide to enter the profession in the first place. Beginning in 2005, the Bar Association convened its diversity committee to look at ways in which diversity in the legal profession could be enhanced. Programs were initiated to encourage minority students to consider law-related employment within the York community. In 2007, the diversity committee encouraged the Bar Foundation to establish the then Diversity Pipeline Internship program and began efforts to raise funds for this purpose.

The Clarence “Chuck” N. Patterson (CNP) Diversity Internship Scholarship program, renamed after the untimely passing of Judge Patterson in 2011, provides internship opportunities for eligible minority law students. Two paid ($6,000) 10 week long summer internships will be awarded to deserving minority law students who will either be second or third year students in the fall of 2012. There are two participating programs this summer: the York County Office of the Public Defender and the Law Firm of Griffith, Strickler, Lerman, Solymos & Calkins. Both are located in York, Pennsylvania.

Students must be enrolled in law school full-time to qualify. Preference will be given to those applicants who are from Central Pennsylvania and who intend to practice law in Central Pennsylvania, with special preference given to those applicants who are from York County.

Applicants should send in the following materials: CNP DISP application, resume, cover letter, writing sample, and transcript. In their cover letters, applicants should rank the above internship programs in order of preference with one (1) being their first choice and two (2) being their second choice (if applying for both). In addition, applicants should note what ties, if any, they have to either York County or Central Pennsylvania. If applying for the Griffith, Strickler, Lerman, Solymos & Calkins position, please also provide two (2) recommendations from law school professors.

Materials can either be emailed to shaleeta.washington@highmark.com, faxed to 717-302-4203 (Attn: Shaleeta Washington), or they can be mailed to the following address:

Please email Shaleeta R. Washington at shaleeta.washington@highmark.com with any questions. Deadline for submission of materials is February 24, 2012.

About the Griffith, Strickler, Lerman, Solymos & Calkins Position

The Law Firm of Griffith, Strickler, Lerman, Solymos & Calkins is seeking a summer intern through the York County Bar Foundation Diversity Pipeline Internship for the summer of 2012. The ideal candidate will be a 3rd year law school student in the fall of 2012 (2nd year law students may also be considered) who is interested in pursuing a career in civil litigation in York County, Pennsylvania. (Only candidates serious about civil litigation should apply.) The ideal candidate should have superior legal writing and research skills, be able to work independently, and be able to meet deadlines on a variety of assignments. Recommendations from professors requested. The internship will involve all aspects of civil litigation and may afford the intern the opportunity to attend depositions, motions court, hearings, and possibly trials. More information about the firm can be found at <http://www.gslsc.com>.

Re: Liberty Bell Award

May 1st marks the annual national celebration of Law Day USA. As part of the York County Bar Association and York County Bar Foundation celebration of Law Day, the Liberty Bell Award is presented to a non-lawyer in York County in recognition of his or her volunteer efforts within the community. The Law Day Committee seeks the input of the entire Bar Association membership for Liberty Bell Award nominations.

While the York community is fortunate to have many worthy volunteer leaders, the criteria for the Liberty Bell Award focuses on specific law-related activities. The nominees should be non-lawyers in York County who, through volunteer efforts, have provided outstanding service in one of the following areas:

1. Promoting a better understanding of our Constitution and the Bill of Rights
2. Encouraging greater respect for the law and courts
3. Stimulating a deeper sense of individual responsibilities so that citizens recognize their duties as well as their rights
4. Contributing to the effective functioning of our institutions of government
5. Fostering a better understanding and appreciation of the role of law in our society

If there is a particular individual whom you believe is deserving of the award, please submit a nomination petition containing the individual's name, background information and reasons why you believe he/she is deserving of the award. All nomination petitions should be forwarded by Friday, March 23, 2012, to the York County Bar Center, 137 East Market Street, York, PA 17401. All nomination petitions will be reviewed by the Liberty Bell Award Selection Committee who will select a winner. The Award will be presented at the Bar Foundation's Law Day luncheon on Tuesday, May 1, 2012, at 12:00 noon at the Yorktowne Hotel.

The Liberty Bell Award is the most prestigious award that the Bar Association presents, and we are extremely interested in selecting a worthy recipient. Your input is greatly appreciated.

ATTENTION: York County Bar Association Members

The Honorable John C. Uhler
York County Court of Common Pleas
York County Judicial Center
45 N George St
York, PA 17401

Dear Judge Uhler:

I am writing in my capacity as Chair of the Pennsylvania Bar Association's Federal Practice Committee (PBA -FPC). The PBA first created a Federal Practice Committee in 2006. The mission of the FPC is to promote professionalism, communication and cooperation between lawyers who practice in federal courts and members of the Federal Judiciary. We now have over 95 committee members and there are meetings at the two PBA Committee/Section Days each year, which members may attend in person or via conference call. We have sponsored and co-sponsored Continuing Legal Education programs including a program annually at the PBA Mid-Year meeting.

I would encourage you to extend an invitation to members of your County Bar Association with an interest in federal practice to consider joining the PBA-FPC. I would particularly encourage any members of any county bar federal practice section or committee which you may have to also especially consider joining the PBA-FPC. There is no additional cost to your members to join.

I believe members of your local bar association will find participation in the PBA-FPC to be beneficial. If you have any questions, please contact me.

Very truly yours,

D. Michael Fisher
Circuit Judge, U. S. Court of Appeals, 3d Circuit
Chair, PBA Federal Practice Committee
